

ADVANCING PPIE IN THE MIDLANDS: SHARING BEST PRACTICE

WEDNESDAY 11 MAY

Time	Topic	Speaker/Facilitator
11:00-11:15	Welcome and Introduction	Professor Ian Hall , Director of the Nottingham Biomedical Research Centre & Midlands Health Alliance Co-chair
11:15-12:00	NIHR and public engagement	Jeremy Taylor , Director for Public Voice at NIHR
Lunch
13:00-13:40	General introduction to PPIE in Research	Steven Blackburn , Associate Professor – Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement & Public Involvement Lead, NIHR Research Design Service West Midlands & NIHR Research Design Service National Office
13:40-14:20	Delivering the Participant in Research Experience Survey.	Mary-Anne Darby , Head of Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement, CRN West Midlands; Steve Clapperton , Communications and Engagement Lead, CRN East Midlands
14:20-15:00	The Centre for Ethnic Health Research: The Importance of Cultural Competence in Research	Julian Harrison , Equality and Diversity Consultant at The Centre for Ethnic Health Research
15:00-15:40	Involving young people in health and social care research	Niyah Campbell (ARC West Midlands) Public Involvement and Engagement Officer

THURSDAY 12 MAY

Time	Topic	Speaker/Facilitator
National Engagement: Policy in action
10:00-11:30	Race Equality Framework Experiences using Research Equality Framework in PPIE: Keele University and Birmingham Pilot	Fay Scott, Senior Public Involvement Manager, NIHR Krysia Dziedzic, Director, Impact Accelerator Unit Natalie Knight, Race Equality Framework Ambassador for Public Involvement In Research Victoria Day, Manager [NIHR Birmingham Biomedical Research Centre] Laura Chapman, PPIE Manager [NIHR Birmingham Biomedical Research Centre] Sobia Shaw, Public Contributor [Birmingham BRC Liver & GI PPI Group]
11:30-12:15	An introduction to the Research Design Service East Midlands EDI Toolkit: a resource for researchers to embed EDI their research design and conduct of their research. Reflections on developing research in LGBTQ+ communities living with dementia: the practicalities, benefits and challenges.	Rebecca Barnes, Senior Research Advisor in Qualitative and Social Research Methods Naina Patel, Public Involvement Lead, University of Leicester Claudio Di Lorito, Research Fellow
Lunch
Case studies 1:30pm – 4pm
13:30-14:30	Working with Community Researchers	Becky Pritchard , Public Involvement Manager
14:30-15:15	We Are Research Volunteers; involving patients in research delivery Purpose: To improve participant and public contributor experience by introducing Research Volunteers to Nottingham University Hospitals research delivery teams.	Kate Frost, Head of PPIE at Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust Liz Tibbett, PPI Manager & 2 research volunteers
15:15-16:00	Patient and Public Leadership: how to develop skills and confidence to contribute effectively	Shahnaz Aziz, Patient Public Leadership and Equality Lead, East Midlands Academic Health Science Network Teresa Burgoyne, Patient Leader

FRIDAY 13 MAY - PRACTICAL SUPPORT FOR DELIVERING PPIE

Time	Topic	Speaker/Facilitator
Co-Production
10:00-10:40	Involving the public in Equality Impact Assessment processes	Shahnaz Aziz , Patient Public Leadership and Equality Lead, East Midlands Academic Health Science Network Sandra Paget , Public Contributor
10:40-11:20	Enabling Digital Co-production: a framework to assess the differing impacts of digital PPI	Rebecca Woodcock , Patient and Public Involvement Coordinator: Mental Health & Technology Research University of Nottingham Maurico Molinari Ulate , Marie Skłodowska-Curie Research Fellow, Universidad de Salamanca Isabelle Smith , (MindTech Involvement Team Member)
Break
12:40-13:20	Bringing hearing and mental health together	Dr Adele Horobin , Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement Manager, NIHR Nottingham Biomedical Research Centre
Lunch
Tackling challenges
14:00-14:45	Setting up groups: getting started	Laura Chapman , PPIE Manager [NIHR Birmingham Biomedical Research Centre] Tracy Gazeley , CRF Delivery Manager & Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement Lead NIHR Coventry & Warwickshire Clinical Research Facility Margaret O'Hara , Patient & Public Involvement & Engagement in Research Lead, University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
14:45-15:30	Developing an Evidence-Base for Public Involvement – Why we all need to Get a GRIPP2!	Magdalena Skrybant , Public Involvement Lead, NIHR Applied Research Collaboration West Midlands Sophie Staniszewska , Professor of Patient and Public Involvement and Experiences of Care and Co-Editor in Chief, Research Involvement and Engagement, Warwick Medical School, ARC WM, HPRU GI and HPRU GED
15:30-16:00	Panel Q&A session

